What do I get if I qualify?	Cash assistance. Both programs also provide employment services.		Coverage for health services.	Benefits to help you purchase food.
Who can qualify for this program?	Single and married adults without dependent minors; minors in some specific circumstances.	Families caring for children under age 18, pregnant women in their last trimester, and pregnant teenagers.	Families and individuals.	Families and individuals.
	Individuals who receive SSI/SSP are not eligible for CalWORKs, General Assistance, CalFresh, or County issued Medi-Cal. They receive State issued Medi-Cal with their SSI. Family members in need of assistance, who reside with an SSI recipient, may apply and be eligible for the above programs. An SSI parent may apply for CalWORKs, CalFresh, or Medi-Cal for their minor children.
How do you decide if I qualify?	We consider all of your and your family's available income and property to decide if you are eligible. Income can affect the amount of assistance you receive. We will determine if your family members are eligible for benefits in each program. If they are not eligible, we will tell you why.		We consider all income available to you and your family to determine eligibility, unless the income is considered exempt. Income can affect what type of assistance you can receive. If you are over 65 years of age, blind or disabled, your income and property will be considered.	We consider all of your household's income to determine your eligibility and benefit amount. We will determine if anyone in your household is not eligible.
Will my car count?	No	A car may be considered available property, depending on how much it is worth.	If you have only one car, it is not considered available property. If you have more cars, they may be considered.	No
Will my house count?	If you live in your own home, it is not counted towards property limits. If you own other real property, or don't live in your home, the value may be considered as available property.		If you own the home you live in, the value will not be counted toward the property limit. If you own a home and it is not your primary residence or you own other real property, the value may be counted toward the property limit.	No
How do I apply for this program?	In person only in any of our offices, listed on the other side of this brochure.	By mail, online, in some community organizations, or in person at any of our offices. To apply online, go to www.mybenefitscalwin.org or www.coveredca.com .
What else should I know?	You must have lived in our county for at least 15 days. General Assistance cash aid is considered a loan that you must repay.	Immediate Need and Homeless Assistance benefits help families with emergency situations.	You may have a monthly co-pay for your medical expense referred to as a Share of Cost or you may be determined eligible for other health coverage through Covered California and have to pay premium payments.	Expedited Services can provide food assistance for emergencies within 3 working days.

This table provides a quick overview of the assistance programs and the general requirements that apply. There are other rules that may apply to you in each program. We will use the rules that apply to you and your household. If you apply, your worker will make a decision of your eligibility based on those rules. The application process can take 30 to 45 days depending on the program (or more in some cases) to get all of the information needed to make a decision. You should apply as soon as you know you need assistance.
