Through the Looking Glass: Transportation Training

Program Last Updated: 01/04/2016

Program: Ready, Set, Travel!

Program Description: TLG offers travel training and adaptations for parents or caregivers who have a disability or physical difficulty (as from pain or fatigue), or parents who have a child with a disability. If you find it difficult to use public transportation with your children, (BART, bus, sidewalks), we can provide help in overcoming barriers to traveling independently with your child or children.
